

DINNER WITH A TWIST

7th September 2005

Feedback

“I’d like to add my thanks for an excellent event which clearly went down really well with our clients.”

“Thank you for a very enjoyable occasion last night. My wife thoroughly enjoyed the occasion even though her sleuthing on this occasion led table 3 to the wrong answer!”

“My partner and I wanted to thank you for a nice evening and dinner last night. It was very entertaining, and nice to speak to you out of the working context. I thought of a team name when I got home “I knew it! – ies”” (say it quickly..) – very poor I know, but feel free to use it at another Actuary’s murder mystery do!”

“My wife and I would like to thank you and your colleagues for a most enjoyable evening [...] We do however apologise for being so dumb when it comes to solving a crime.”

“My wife and I really enjoyed the dinner last night. It was great fun, and set in a great location. We didn’t know anything at all about this aspect of London’s history, and it was a real eye-opener. The company was great, as was the food. And as for the entertainment..... well, no we didn’t actually get the right answer, but we had a damn good guess.”

“Thank you so much for yesterday evening. It was a wonderful venue and good fun to have some diversion!”

“Can I thank you and your colleagues for an extremely entertaining evening last Wednesday.”

“I am just writing to thank you for “Dinner with a Twist” last night. It was a very enjoyable evening. Unfortunately, I wasn’t a very good ‘policeman’ last night and I would have ‘locked up the wrong person’.”

“Dinner with a Twist at the Foundling Museum was certainly just that – it was different to the normal formal dinner and both amusing and enjoyable in an extremely interesting location.”

“My husband and I enjoyed the whole event, which seemed to pass very quickly.”

“The format of good food, company, surroundings and murder/mystery was very relaxing and enjoyable.”

“There are not enough superlatives to describe how enjoyable the whole event was.”
